“... Yesterday is already a dream, and tomorrow is only a vision;
But today, well lived, makes every yesterday
A dream of happiness, and every tomorrow a vision of hope.
Look well, therefore, to this day!
Such is the salutation of the

DEDICATION

The Class of 1984 chose to dedicate its yearbook to the late George Smith. As Chief of the Millis Police Department for 22 years, he was a presence throughout most of our school years.

A native of Millis and a member of the Millis High School Class of 1955, Chief Smith was no stranger to the happenings in Millis. With the admiration, not only from his peers, but also from an entire town, Chief Smith will not be forgotten. Our class is proud to have known such a respected man.

SUPERINTENDENT

To the Class of 1984:

It has been said, "Life is always opening new and unexpected things to us." I am certain that each of you can reflect on that statement and recall vividly an exciting incident that you have experienced. Your school life has provided you with years of memorable happenings. Now, as you embark upon a new life, let the preparation received in high school be the stepping stone to challenging adventures that will fill your life with warmth, happiness and joy.

My best wishes are extended to each of you for success in those "new and unexpected happenings."

Sincerely yours,
William A. Vellante

To The Class of 1984:

I can't believe that four years have passed since you entered Millis High School. The only class to make the transition from Millis Junior-Senior High School to Millis Middle School and back to High School, you have certainly experienced an era of transition. In addition, you have recorded a first as you were the first class to get stuck with the Principal for a class advisor during your freshman year and one of the first classes to experience the negative aspects of "proposition 2½."

Despite turmoil and change in your educational lives, you have adjusted well and rank among the best and most spirited classes to pass through Millis High School. I sincerely hope that the changes which you've experienced have served to strengthen your adaptability to changing times, and this flexibility will carry over into future situations, making you the better for it.

On behalf of the staff and myself, I extend our congratulations to each and every one of you and sincerely wish you much happiness and success in your future endeavors. We hope that our efforts have produced the results you hoped for and your way in life will be better off for our combined efforts.

Sincerely,
Paul A. Brunelle

VALEDICTORIAN

Debbi Sullivan

Reverend Clergy, Members of the School Committee, Mr. Vellante, Mr. Brunelle, Faculty, family, and friends. It is my honor and privilege to welcome you to share in this memorable event.

In this age we are often encouraged to be alike in dress, speech, taste, morality, and action. After graduation we are expected to continue further our education in college, earn a degree, pursue a career, or begin immediately in an occupation. Sometimes we can become trapped in the ensnaring hopes of parents and peers, and we are pressed to fulfill their dreams instead of our own. This compulsion to please others may limit the development of our own personalities and can stifle our creativity.

In our right to retain our own individuality, let us not compel others to conform to our beliefs. In the world today and yesterday, leaders of nations have prohibited athletes from competing for glory in the Olympic games.

This base, political maneuver makes these men and women pawns in the struggle for ideological domination. It is up to us, the coming generation, to strive together to assure that the freedom of choice is available to all.

Take courage to propagate your own destiny. If you encounter obstacles, meet them head on. Refuse to let them end your search for realization of your goals. As Cicero once said, "Excellence cannot be utterly attained, but with diligence and devotion it can be approached. One must never be content with mediocrity, for that is complacency of low minds. Strive always."

In our high school years, we have learned the skills needed to make us functioning members of society. Use these skills to shape a meaningful life. Do not stand in the shadows of former leaders, but step into the light of a new day. "Do not follow where the path may lead. Go instead, where there is no path, and leave a trail."

Thank you

SALUTATORIAN

Reverend Clergy, Members of the School Committee, Mr. Vellante, Mr. Brunelle, Faculty, Parents and Friends

Although education consists primarily of learning facts and concepts, I have found that those whom I have met offered a very important education in a different sense. In the past years I have learned that every individual plays an important role in education. I have met students who have shown me my true potential and I have met teachers who have introduced powerful ideas that have changed the way I think and behave. There is a lesson to be learned from each person, no matter how intelligent or ignorant she or he at first seems. In every individual there is a wealth of philosophies, values, and ideas that can not only help us to understand others better, but also to help us to understand ourselves as well. To learn these important ideas one must be willing to allow himself or herself to be open to new or different values. In the words of Stephens, "We often grow more by bending with the wind than by standing in rigid defiance."

One who rejects somebody because of race, sex, religion, or handicap is often closing off a person who may be a powerful inspiration. To deny this possibility due to an unfounded bias is a sad mistake. To get the most from other people, you must overlook their minor faults in order to receive the enormous benefits they have to offer.

Tonight I encourage my fellow graduates and all here to try to dismiss any prejudices you may have and become willing to accept the valuable lessons of those you meet. Become open to new ideas. Do not neglect your responsibilities to yourself and others, and believe in what you do. Strive for your dreams, and work hard to achieve your goals, but enjoy yourself as you go. Enjoy life always because every day is a gift, and as a former teacher often said, "to refuse a gift is a foolish act." We are so fortunate to live in a country where we can freely express ourselves. Take advantage of this freedom and consider the value of the people who surround you. If you do this, I believe you will realize the very special qualities of yourself and others. To recognize the value of yourself and the value of life is perhaps the most valuable lesson one can possibly learn.

Reverend Clergy, Members of the School Committee, Mr. Vellante, Mr. Principal, Faculty, Parents and Friends

A whole's hot year has gone by and it is hard to believe. It just seems like yesterday that I left Norway and came to the United States. I wondered about many things. Would the kids at school be friendly? Would I get along with my new parents in my new home? Now I can honestly say that everything is much better and the people are friendlier than I dared to hope. In the beginning my English was not that good, but now I think I am better because now I have learned all the "awesome" slang words" you use here.

First of all I want to thank Chrissie and Eddie very much for being such great parents to me during this year. I have had a lot of fun with them, and they have loved me really much, but I like that. I was very nervous at the beginning of the school year because everything was new, but I got help from a nice girl. I want to thank Karen Higgins very much for helping me here the first days. She introduced me to students and teachers and helped me learn my way around school.

I have made many good friends here in Millis, but I have two really good friends here. One is Donna Barrett and I am glad I got to know her. The other is Mark Kline. I want to thank her very much for being my best friend. We had a lot of fun together, and I will always remember that. I also want to thank the whole family for treating me like a third daughter.

Some of the special things that I have done, which I always will remember, are the trip to Florida, that was really an experience, especially meeting those American "kroaches" and prom night. It was fun to dress up and ride in a limo since states we don't have either in Norway.

I enjoyed all my classes, especially those of Mr. Dooling and Mr. Hoffman, but I think that my most favorite class was art with Mrs. Baima. We had a lot of fun together.

I want to thank all the teachers in the school and everybody in town who have been so nice to me. I am probably the first Norwegian girl to have 3 surprise birthday parties, to get married to Scott Belvea, and to have an egg baby.

I am glad I came to Millis because it would not have been the same if I stayed anywhere else.

So I think I just want you all to know that while I am physically leaving you behind in Millis, you will always be in my heart and in my memories.

GOODBYE EVERYBODY, I LOVE YOU ALL!!!

Berit Skogen

In the 8th grade we took a huge step back to the immature Middle School with Dr. A as our principal once again. Believing me out I said did not ask this kind of thing. It was at this point that we had many many many many many maxims which set the entire bar. Miss Buke to act may give. Or maybe there was the day back then day when Dr. A refused to serve and because the penning had light. I think in Kibaka spoke her mind eventually we were allowed to have our lunch. For those who were interested there was always Bubba Time on Fridays where we could participate in different groups. We still had our group guidance meetings, but now Dr. A had his touch sessions. "Hey Eileen, is this a positive or negative touch?" "Oh knock it off Sam." Also in 8th grade, we had a huge going away party for CINDI STATLER who was going to move. The funny part is that she came back to Millis a couple of weeks later. Maybe she was looking for another party or something. 8th grade also brought about the huge fights at the top of the hill next to the bandstand. Remember those old words? "Meet me after school at the top of the hill!" Tough people, weren't we??? One day in the end of the eighth grade in Algebra class, something Mrs. Gately was teaching finally sunk into PAT TRAVERS' head. "I get it", he yelled, "Two is T, and T is Two, I actually learned something this year." At this he jumped on his desk and started singing, "Two is T and T is Two." Soon the whole class was on their desks singing and dancing. At the close of our 8th grade year, we entered our freshman year with a black cloud hanging low over our heads. It seemed that some of the teachers, the principal and others were dreading the fact that our class was entering the high school. We had apparently picked up a bad reputation in our one year in the Middle School.

Well anyways, in our freshman year MIKE TRAVERS took over and became our very successful class president. BILL MANCINI entered the class, but unfortunately his good looks couldn't do much for the freshman football team that went 0-8 that year, while the varsity team went on to become the division 4 champs, and to win the superbowl. Also that year, the last Millis football team which had KEVIN HENDERSON, MARK COUSLAND, MIKE VANTHIEL and others on it, were cheered on by the very last freshman cheerleading squad. The squad consisted of KATHY VANROEKEL, LISA BURKE, NORANN NOON, JULIE SINATRA, JOANNE STARK and others. CHRIS SOUZA got his nickname in the 9th grade. With the help of an older band member, Chris was taught how to hit a pebble with his trumpet, hence the name Reggie. During a basketball game DEBBIE MCCOLL was about to throw the ball inbounds when she heard everyone yelling, "shoot, shoot!", so she shot the ball, unfortunately she was still out of bounds. Deb didn't get the basket anyways. Our freshman year also introduced many of us to the high school party life.

In our sophomore year not too much happened except that ALFRED BOLZANI amazed us with his incredible tennis skills, JUDY BURNETT and CHARLENE ST. CHARLES both became newcomers to our school system, and KERRY CANNON became a free woman to party without her big brother Ted next to her side. Also many of us were extremely jealous of LYDIA JOYCE who was the 1st to get her license.

The junior year brought out the best of JOHN HOURIGAN with his pinching crusades! Who will forget when ROB PROVOST became a male fashion model? One day he came to school wearing a very chic pair of Cheryl Tiegs jeans, they were his mother's jeans but unfortunately he didn't know it at the time. Then, in Miss Barry's French IV accelerated class, Joanne, Diane, Maura, Eileen and Denise were so filled with the Christmas spirit that they gave Miss O'Donnell's study hall an early present. A string of cranberries and popcorn was lowered from the lab window. Yells of "It's a bird, it's a bird" could be heard from the study hall. To this very day Joanne is still saying, "It wasn't my idea." Mr. Dooling is a great teacher, but his junior history class was in for a big surprise when he got a bloody nose. Instead of leaving the room to remedy the problem he stuck a tissue up his nose and continued to teach class. How gross!!! Also in the 11th grade Mr. Vigue pleaded with STACEY GRIFFIN and JENN WOODARD to come to track practice but never succeeded because they thought they were too good for practice. They definitely proved their point as the year went on. DAVID MARIANO, KEVIN SMITH and BILL KERIVAN used to be such pains. They used to block poor Eileen's locker so she wouldn't be able to get her books, what a predicament! Then there was our junior talent show starring MATT GILLIS and SAMANTHA CLAIR as our outstanding MC's. Sam continued into the next year with her speaking abilities so that we were all permitted to hear "the mouth" every morning. "Please stand for 30 seconds of silent meditation." Also during the talent show, we got to see KERRY STEVENSON display her own version of flashdancing. Then there was the junior prom which was a complete success. JIMMY GILMARTIN and CHERYL PATNE were doing a king and queen. The prom. After a while of dancing and fun which proceeded to the Cape Boy what a bash. I will never forget that day.

The last grade of our year and our final year left us short a few friends. BOB ALGER, LISA BURKE, APRIAN MOON, DEBBIE SULLIVAN, JOE NOBREGA, and NORANN NOON were the smart ones to get out. "T" went to the extreme. A highlight of this year was The Clumsy Custard Horror Show, our senior play. DAVID DEMARZO, BILL MANCINI, SCOTT BELYEA, GREG PICKLESIMER, MATT GILLIS and STEVE SMITH were really showing it all with their short tunics. Nice legs guys. Other different performances were given by KELLY BEYER, LISA BURKE, and BETH WHITE as the horrible and terrifying Clumsy Custard. KAREN DIGGINS and JULIE RUBINO sure had a lot of trouble with props in the senior play, especially a certain table and tree. One event in our senior year will never be forgotten. It happened on Halloween and STEVE RAWDING and others will never forget their evening in an enclosed room. But this subject must not be discussed any longer. Also, in our senior year, JEFF JOHNSTON impressed us all by being a key factor in the vocal jazz with his superior performances. MICHELLE GOLDBERG glanced over many schools in the past year or so but finally decided that Millis was the only place to be. SCOTT FLAHERTY didn't have too much time for the class of "84" because he was too busy chasing around one certain junior girl. BOB ALGER formed a group called Bob, Chip and friends. The purpose of this group was to serenade Mr. Valois with old Rolling Stone's tunes in the back of the accounting class. We also remember STORKA's SS Minow. MICHAEL COUSINS and SKIP KELLY became known for their two incredible bomber trucks. SUE MAEL and JOANNE DAESSEN kept their kind personality over all the years we have known them. RUTH HAGEARTY, MICHELE DOUGANS, CHERYL PAYNE, MARY STEVENSON, and DONNA DIEZTAL thought that they were so smart that they graduated 1/2 year. MARYLOU DYWER and MIKE CALLAHAN definitely made the cutest and sweetest couple through our high school years. JENN WOODARD, KERRY SMITH, and HEIDI SMITH became known for their chewing. And Kerry came to the school with extremely long hair, then it went from here to here to here and finally here. Where is it going next Kerry? The notorious MIKE ROWEAN became known for his famous "Skip party". And two exchange students came to our town this year. One was Jorge Lanza and another was a girl named BERIT SKOGEN. She impressed us all with her incredible sweater knitting skills. Then came one of the biggest and most controversial events of the year. THE FLORIDA TRIP!!!! 32 of us went under the guidance of Denise Brown and George Pappadapilis or was the Pappalipili? We had an extremely awesome time. Ask NANCY D'ERAMO about the 1st night. It just happened to be Nancy's birthday and according to her it was the best birthday ever. In Florida we had total freedom to do anything we wanted to. MICHELLE FRESH, COLLEEN SCULLY and JOANNE STARK really took full advantage of the freedom and enjoyed themselves. The Florida trip sure put a big smile on KATHY WILKENS' face one night when she was sleeping. Emily and Samantha will always remember G) and RA. And Lisa, how's Smitty???? We all came home with sunburns (ask Wally about his), headaches, souvenirs and lots of memories. PAT TRAVERS will always remember when Mrs. Russ' advanced English class told him the real story of the Japanese Quince. The rain put a damper on the class trip, but some of us managed to find a little sunshine of our own. KIM FREESE and KELLY RILEY came home with many ribbons and TOM HOWARD and Bells successfully maneuvered their canoe without even tipping it over. Even JOE ARNOLD and MATT BERGEN showed up for the rainy trip. JANE LACROIX and ELLEN ROSKEY were singing anything imaginable on the bus until they were drowned out by ERIN FAY and JANICE VOLPA who turned the Billy Idol up. At our senior banquet, AUDRA DEVENS showed up ready to boogie. TERRY MACDONALD came dressed up extremely nice with Lisa by his side. LAURA POWER came with MIKE TRAVERS, RANDY RYDER came with his girlfriend named Candy, BARBARA SOMERS showed up with a gorgeous dude, KIM WHITE came to the trip and banquet with pneumonia, and STEVE ROBINSON just came. Also at the banquet we saw the exotic side of DENISE BOUCHER who couldn't resist flashing her stuff on a table top. (The Lady in Red!!). Oh my goodness, look at the time, we could go on forever with all the millions of things our class has done in the past but time definitely doesn't permit.

A few places and people, however, which will always linger on in our memories are: The sunroom, the back parking lot, Van's, Rowie's, Denise's cast party, the swallows, Ms. McKav, Bruno, Pentacle, and the Cape.

The year is now 1984 and we have come to the end of our Millis High School years. Ronald Reagan is the president and the Middle East and Central America are the international concerns. Michael Jackson, Billy Idol, the Crue, and Boy George are the musical rages. And breakdancing is the in thing. Mr. Vellente is the Superintendent and Edna Neville is Chairperson of the School Committee. But it is the graduation of the class of 1984 which is the most outstanding event of this year.

We, Eileen and I, hope that all that was said in this class history is taken in the good humor that it was intended to be.

Thank you and good luck to everyone in the class of "84".

WILL

CLASS PROPHECY

- Michelle — (Intro) — Let's speed up the years, take an average day of two women, Stacey and Jane. Imagine this, the year is 2004, the place is Id, a city on the east side of the moon. Stacey and Jane are trying to decide how they will manage to attend the several events happening in the next few bleems.
- Stacey — Hi Jane, this is Stacey. Did you just get an invitation to the Inaugural Ball?
- Jane — Ya, I can't wait, who do you think is going to win the election?
- Stacey — I don't know, it's gonna be close.
- Jane — Oh I almost forgot, did you get free tickets to the Olympic Games?
- Stacey — Ya I did, but did you notice that they are being held on the same day as the ball and Rowie's party?
- Jane — Well, we will just have to go to them all. I'll pick you up in my lunar module at 6:00 p.m.
- Stacey — Okay, see you later.
- Later that day, Jane and Stacey meet Michelle.
- Stacey — The Inaugural ball is first on the list.
- Jane — I can't believe that EILEEN MURPHY beat MIKE TRAVERS in the primaries.
- Michele — Jane! Stacey! I haven't seen you in so long. What are you doing here?
- Jane — Well, Stacey called me and asked if I was going and we decided to go together.
- Michelle — I just got off work here so, mind if I stick with you guys?
- Stacey — No, we don't mind.
- Jane — Oh look, there's RON MCKENNEY and KEVIN HENDERSON the famous authors of 101 Ways to Get Suspended.
- Michelle — I saw REBECCA MUSHNICK chairman of the president's Safe Driving Committee.
- Stacey — Check out the body guards MIKE COYLE, RANDY RYDER, STEVEN RAWDING, and JOE ARNOLD protecting MICHAEL CALLAHAN that famous dealer.
- Jane — What does he deal in?
- Stacey — Used cars of course.
- Michelle — Did he and MARYLOU DWYER ever get married?
- Jane — Yeah, about 5 years ago.
- Stacey — Remember that old T.V. show, 'Solid Gold', well I heard they're trying to bring it back, the first new show was on last week.
- Michelle — I saw that, with the new Solid Gold Dancers, MARY STEVENSON, JEN WOODARD, DENISE BOUCHER, DEBBIE SULLIVAN, and CINDI STATLER, and the new hosts the Picklesimer twins, Steph and Greg.
- Jane — There goes the owners of a whole chain of Shell Gas Stations, STORKA, COUS, and LANCE.
- Stacey — How do you like the security around this place, CHRIS SOUZA and JUDY BURNETT, they both graduated from the Police Academy, but Judy still doesn't possess her CPR card.
- Michelle — Hey you guys, check this out, it's NANCY D'ERAMO the world-renowned beautician accompanying the most well known actor in movies today, SCOTT BELYEA.
- Stacey — I knew he had talent way back in the senior play.
- Jane — There are other famous people here too, DAVID MARIANO, S.O.H.C.A.H.T.O.A. warrior, and his "right-hand man", JEFF JOHNSTON.
- Michelle — Who would ever believe that this is what they turned out to be.
- Stacey — Ya no kidding.
- Jane — Seems like just last week we were sitting in math class.
- Michelle — This champagne is great, where did it come from?
- Stacey — It came either from MALOUF and STEEVES' Warehouse Liquors or KEANEY and JOYCE'S Wholesale Liquors or ROSKEY and MAEL's Discount Liquors, because between all 6 of them, they own all the liquor stores on earth and the moon.
- Jane — JULIE SINATRA is over there, I can't believe she's the top model for Vogue.
- Michelle — Well did you see BILL "BoomBoom" MANCINI in G.Q. last month? What a babe.
- Stacey — Here comes the couple who own the two most popular magazines, Playboy and Playgirl, it's DAVID DEMARZO and SAMANTHA CLAIR.
- Jane — Do you remember BERIT SKOGEN?
- Michelle — Of course I do. As a matter of fact she and Mrs. Baima went into business together manufacturing Norwegian Sweaters.
- Stacey — I think we should try and go to the Olympics later on.
- Jane — Ya, I want to see JANICE VOLPICELLI, ERIN FAY, KERRY SMITH, KERRY CANNON, and NORANN NOON on the field hockey team.
- Michelle — KARIN MCCANDLESS, MICHELE DOUGANS, HEIDI SMITH, and DEBBIE MCCOLL are all on the volleyball team and are nonstop even though they are 1 win and 27 losses.
- Stacey — Did you hear about LISA BURKE, KELLY BEYER, EMILY MCCANN, and BETH WHITE, the Olympic team's cheerleaders for Id were kidnapped by the earth athletes BOB ALGER, MATT BERGEN, AL BOLZANI, ALEX KUBACKI, and BILL KERIVAN.
- Jane — Ya, that's awful. SCOTT FLAHERTY is competing against SKIP KELLEY in the jet races, with a pit crew of MIKE COUSENS, STEVEN ROBINSON, GLEN IVORY, MIKE BENNETT, KEVIN SMITH, and TERRY MACDONALD.
- Michelle — Speaking about Terry Macdonald did you know his twin sister TERESA and her cousin SELENE GOES are now the biggest gossip columnists on the moon. They were the ones who discovered Boy George is really a girl and not a boy dressed as a girl.
- Stacey — Wow, I didn't know that was them who did that, I thought it was CHARLENE ST. CHARLES and MICHELLE FRESH who were his oops I mean her fashion consultants.
- Jane — Say, is anyone going to Rowie's "Skip-Day" Re-

...an party? I hear Mr Brunelle is the guest of honor he still hasn't forgiven MIKE for not inviting him on the first one

Michelle — I heard JOHN HOURIGAN and MIKE ROWEAN are supposed to be inognito tonight because they are Universal Narcotics Agents

State — Well, I hear JIM GILMARTIN, ERIC HAGEN, PAT TRAVERS, STEVEN SMITH, and MATTY GILLIS are the new FAMOUS FIVE

lane — They are appearing tonight later on

Michelle — Wow, I heard they were the best "break dancers" in all worlds. Or as ER says, "We are ALLWORLD."

Stacey I heard the Weebles cartoon creators will be there. You know MIKE VANTHIEL and ERIN RIELLY

Jane — Is that Weebles as in "they wobble but they don't fall down?"

Michelle — It sure is, hey wait a minute who is going to play if the Famous Five are dancing?

Stacey — Oh I thought you knew. It's "Wally's Winners" with Wally on drums, FRANK FORTS on bass, ROB PROVOST on keyboards, JOEY NOBREGA, lead vocals, AUDRA DEVENS, RUTH HAGEARTY, and KIM WHITE as back up vocals while KATHY VANROEKEL is their majorette.

the — Shell, did you know that JULIE RUBINO is the illustrator for KAREN DIGGINS' many childrens' books

Michelle - No wow! After this is over let's go down to Bennigans and tell the NEW OWNER CHERYL PAYNE and bouncer TOM HOWARD what they've missed

SARAH - Okay, and maybe we'll see KELLY RILEY and KATHY WILKENS, the interior decorators of Cheryl's chain of restaurants.

120 This ice cream is great did it come from one of COLLEEN and BARBARA's FRIENDLY ice cream stores?

Ya it did and JOANNE and KIM delivered it in their very own 18 wheeler that they designed

Message — Shh, quiet Grippa, the first lady of the moon, LAURA POWER-FAVERS is about to make her speech!!!

We've got something for students who need money for school.

HELP

Our Higher Education Loan Program (HELP) can keep students right where they belong. In school.

If you're an undergraduate, you can borrow up to $2500 per year at South Shore Bank. Graduate students, as much as $5000 per year. And you don't have to start paying us back till you leave school or graduate.

To qualify for HELP you must be enrolled in an accredited school, carry at least a half-time study load, and meet the school's definition of financial need.

Even if you don't qualify for HELP, you may be eligible for up to $3000 per year through our Parent Loans for Undergraduate Students (PLUS) program. PLUS is for parents with good credit who can start repaying your loan immediately. So call any one of our South Shore Bank offices. And get the HELP you need.
